

Rennes 2 University

Online Exhibition: Women's Stories

Contenu sous forme de paragraphes

An exhibition imagined and conceived by Quentin Catheline, Noémie Choynet, Ysé Debroise, Euxane Desdevises and Léo Tannier, as part of a class project associated with the Master's degree in Mediation of Heritage and History in Europe (MPHE).

Discover or rediscover the stories of 12 women. Although they are little-known, they nevertheless left their mark on history: Agnodice, the gynecologist of Ancient Greece, Mavia, the Warrior Queen, Wu Zetian, the Chinese Empress, Christine de Pizan, the medieval writer, Nzinga of Ndongo and Matamba, the unsubmissive, Zitkala-Sa, the protector of Amerindian culture, Maud Stevens Wagner, the tattoo artist, Gabriele Mistral, the humanist poetess, Christine Jorgensen, an early American transgender actress, Ana Iegorova, the faithful fighter, Cui Wuiwen, the multidisciplinary artist, Marie-Amélie Le Fur, the athlete.

This event, supported by the cultural service, is presented to you on the occasion of the International Women's Rights Day, in collaboration with the equality mission.

Discover the online exhibition (from March 8)

Interview | Euxane Desdevises presents the Women's Stories project (available March 8).