Rennes 2 University

Department of Social and Economic Administration

Description succinte

The Social and Economic Administration Department is characterized by its multidisciplinarity, particularly in economics, management, law and economic sciences. It prepares students for careers in business administration and management, general and territorial administration and human resources management.

For more information on available programs please see our Catalogue of Courses or contact the Department.

Bachelor's Degree

Social and Economic Administration (AES) Bachelor’s Degree

Master's Degree

Labour and Human Resources Economics Master’s Degree: Territorial, Employment and Human Resources pathway

Social and Solidarity-based Economy (ESS) Master’s Degree: Solidarity-based Finance and Business Management (FIGES) pathway

Management and International Trade Master’s Degree: Euro-Asian Economic Relations pathway

Public Management Master’s Degree

Co-Directors:

Marie-Laure LE BERRIGAUD

marie-laure.leberrigaud [at] univ-rennes2.fr (marie-laure[dot]leberrigaud[at]univ-rennes2[dot]fr)

and

Yann GUY (directeur adjoint)

yann.guy [at] univ-rennes2.fr (yann[dot]guy[at]univ-rennes2[dot]fr)

Scolarité:

aes [at] univ-rennes2.fr (aes[at]univ-rennes2[dot]fr)

Mazier Contact:
Antonin Boustouller
antonin.boustouller [at] univ-rennes2.fr (antonin[dot]boustouller[at]univ-rennes2[dot]fr)