

Conference: Quand le jazz a débarqué en Europe (When Jazz Landed in Europe)

Contenu sous forme de paragraphes

On January 1, 1918, the African-American infantry regiment who came to be known as the "Hellfighters" landed on the quays of the port of Brest, with a new music that soon spread to Paris. Franck Bergerot tells us the story of how this music spread from the U.S. throughout Europe as well as Africa and Asia.

