Bla-Bla Club

Contenu sous forme de paragraphes

The CMI Rennes is organising a conversation club for international PhD students, researchers and their significant others; come practice your French in a friendly atmosphere!

Interested in meeting new people and improving your French language skills for everyday conversation? Bla bla club is made for you!

It takes place every Monday (from November 12th, 2018) from 6.30pm to 8pm.

FLE Masters students from Rennes 2 University will lead the group and facilitate the conversation. Come every week or punctually, according to your free time. Information and every week's theme will be available on our website so feel free to have a look.
