

Start your academic year off right: Back-to-school essentials (short videos for our students)

In an effort to strengthen the reception and welcoming of its new students, Rennes 2 University has produced a series of short videos that provide valuable information for starting this academic year off in the best conditions possible.

Watch more videos available in French here.

08 September 2020