

The Waterproof Dance Festival: A cultural treat in February

The event's partners have pooled their diversity to build a rich, multi-faceted program, open to choreographic creation and dance in all its forms. Taking place in theatres, museums, studios, classrooms, libraries, gyms and other surprising places, the Waterproof Festival is a culmination of a shared desire to cooperate, experiment and learn together.

Read on to discover more on some of the events happening this month.

- The Levitation Project by Forgetmat

From January 29 to June 28

Exhibition to be discovered in the open air on the Villejean Campus - Rennes 2 University

- Workshop restitution of the University Choreographic Group

Tuesday, February 6, 7 p.m., Hall du Tambour

Discover the performance of the GCU made in collaboration with the choreographer Léa Rault during an internship in December 2023

- Concha, listening stories

Tuesday, February 6, 8 p.m., Le Tambour

Dance conference + DJ set

- Le Fil (The thread)

Wednesday, February 14, 1 p.m., Pina Bausch Room

This representation is an "enhanced" version of the spoken and danced story Le fil by the presence of Performing Arts students from Rennes 2 who participated in a workshop with dancer and choreographer Sylvain Prunenec

- Pause theatre / Theatre break

Thursday, February 15, 12:45 p.m., Salle Pina Bausch

Meeting with Sylvain Prunenec

Moderation: Chloé Lavalette-Leprat, ATER in theatrical studies

- Performette

Wednesday, February 14, 7:30 p.m. and 10 p.m., Le Triangle

Around the show: Je badine avec l'amour... (Wednesday, February 14, 9 p.m., Le Triangle)

Performette is a performative project initiated by students in Plastic Arts and a teacher that only encourages forms, potential ideas and potential desires.

The collective performance will be conducted by Lenaïs Parat (7.30 p.m.) and Performette (10 p.m.) will be coordinated by Olga Pineau, Francis Raynaud and Clémence le Berrigaud.

