Rennes 2 University

Language Center (LANSAD)

The Language Center at Rennes 2 University designs and provides introductory, advanced and specialized language training for specialists in other disciplines (LANSAD), for all students at the university, as part of the Language Teaching Unit enrolled in initial training.

Language courses

LANSAD : Langues pour Spécialistes d'Autres Disciplines

For continuing education courses, for external audiences (organizations and individual learners) or for university staff, please contact the Language Office on +33 (0)2 99 14 16 07.

ATTENTION IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR L2 and L3 UEL COURSE REGISTRATIONS:
If you began the language as an introductory course in L1, you will enroll in the introductory course 2 in L2 and in the intermediate course in L3 (unless your level allows you to enroll in the advanced course, to be discussed with your teacher).

CLES: Higher Education Language skills certification

Any student taking a LANSAD class can register for the Higher Education Language skills certification (CLES) exam, put in place by French universities and the Ministry of Higher Education and Research. It is aimed at students specializing in other disciplines than the language studied and is based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Language (CEFRL).

See the CLES website for more information.
