Rennes 2 University

Call for Applications: International Chairs 2027–2028

Bringing together researchers from different academic and cultural backgrounds, the International Chairs program creates opportunities for new research perspectives, interdisciplinary dialogue, and lasting collaborations between Rennes 2 University and institutions around the world.

The call covers five International Chairs:

- International Chair of Humanities and Social Sciences
- Chair of the Americas
- CAPS International Chair (Creative Approaches to Public Space)
- Dr Denis Mukwege Research–Action Chair
- Mário Soares Chair

Selected candidates will have the opportunity to spend one or two months at Rennes 2 University, working alongside local research teams, contributing to teaching and research activities, and developing new opportunities for international collaboration.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to contact a research team at Rennes 2 University before submitting their application to jointly develop the objectives of their proposed visit.

Application timeline

- Applications open: November 23, 2026
- Application deadline: February 22, 2027
- Selection results: March 2027, subject to final university approval

For further information on the individual Chairs, eligibility criteria, hosting arrangements, and application procedures, please visit our International Chairs program page.

Discover the experience of a visiting professor

Read our recent interview with Pablo Iglesias-Rodríguez, who reflects on his experience at Rennes 2 University and shares his perspectives on research, teaching, and international academic collaboration.

24 November 2026